Indian equity markets are expected to open positively on Thursday, July 16, 2026. GIFT Nifty is trading at 24,115, up by approximately 55 points or 0.23% from Wednesday's Nifty futures close. This comes as the single most constructive diplomatic signal since the MoU was signed on June 17 arrived overnight. Iranian officials privately told Trump advisers that they made a mistake in shooting at commercial ships in the Strait of Hormuz. They said the attacks stemmed from an "errant" sect of hardliners who are trying to undermine negotiations, and that they want to keep talking. This private admission from Iran that "We screwed up" fundamentally transforms the post-escalation landscape. The White House wants the regime to publicly acknowledge its mistake, which the Trump administration views as a violation of the ceasefire. President Trump has directed his team, led by Vice President JD Vance, Jared Kushner, special envoy Steve Witkoff, and Secretary of State Marco Rubio, to continue negotiations. The talks are scheduled to take place in Oman on Saturday. Trump also said he has decided to replace a planned 20% fee on cargo through the Strait of Hormuz with trade and investment deals from Gulf states, after shipping industry experts opposed the fee. This means he is backing away from the most controversial economic measure of the war cycle. According to MarineTraffic data, at least 15 commercial vessels transited the Strait of Hormuz in the past 24 hours, which means shipping is not at zero. Trump's withdrawal of the toll fee and Iran's "We screwed up" admission together represent the sixth iteration of this war cycle's bombing-before-deal pattern. Every prior iteration has been followed by a deal signal within 72 hours. The Oman talks on Saturday are the direct confirmation point.

Nifty 50 Performance

On Wednesday, Nifty 50 opened at 24,085.85, touched a high of 24,220.35, a low of 24,010.55, and closed at 24,078.50. This was up 26.45 points or 0.11%, marking the sixth consecutive closing hold above 24,000. GIFT Nifty at 24,115 signals an opening approximately 55 points above Wednesday's close. The index is expected to open near 24,134, sustaining above 24,000 for a seventh consecutive session. RSI is in the 53–55 zone and is recovering toward the bullish boundary. The MACD bullish crossover remains technically intact. Iran's "We screwed up" admission and Saturday's Oman talks are the structural catalysts required to reclaim 24,200 and then target the 200-Day EMA at 24,421 this week.

Nifty Technical Levels

Support: 24,000, 23,800, 23,500

Resistance: 24,200, 24,500, 24,800

Bank Nifty Performance

On Wednesday, Bank Nifty opened at 57,643.75, hit a high of 58,148.80, a low of 57,545.20, and closed at 57,757.85. This was up 295.55 points or 0.51%, reclaiming 57,500 on a closing basis. GIFT Nifty at 24,115 targets a Bank Nifty opening near 58,000 today. Trump's withdrawal of the 20% Hormuz toll fee in favour of Gulf trade and investment deals removes the most structurally negative banking macro signal of the past week. The toll fee had threatened to permanently embed a higher crude price floor that would have compressed NIM indefinitely. RSI is in the 55–57 zone and is recovering toward the bullish zone. The MACD bullish crossover remains intact. A close above 58,000 today would restore the banking recovery structure.

Bank Nifty Technical Levels

Support: 57,500, 57,000, 56,500

Resistance: 58,000, 58,500, 59,000

Asian Stocks Drop as Kospi Hit by Selloff in Chips

Semiconductor stocks tumbled across Asia, dragging regional equities lower, as investors became more skeptical that the artificial intelligence-driven rally can withstand lofty valuations. Oil climbed. South Korea's Kospi index a bellwether for AI investments slumped as much as 7.3%, with SK Hynix Inc. and Samsung Electronics Co. leading losses ahead of a holiday in Seoul Friday. Earlier, the head of Korea's Financial Services Commission said the country will soon announce measures regarding the controversy over leveraged ETFs linked to the chipmakers fueling volatility. Investors remained cautious on the chip sector after the Information reported that ASML Holdings NV a linchpin in the semiconductor supply chain plans to raise prices. After the Dutch company boosted its annual sales forecast for the second time this year, investors will look to Taiwan Semiconductor Manufacturing Co.'s earnings later Thursday for a fresh read on the AI buildout. Also weighing on the mood, Brent crude rose for a fourth day to near $85.50 a barrel after the US launched fresh airstrikes on Iran. The latest attacks added to concern that escalating Middle East tensions will further disrupt energy supplies.

US Launches Fresh Strikes on Iran as Peril in Strait Deepens

The US launched more airstrikes on Iran after President Donald Trump pledged to intensify the bombardment until Tehran stops attacking ships in the Strait of Hormuz and agrees to open the waterway. In a 90-minute operation, the American military hit missile storage and launch sites on Greater Tunb Island in the Persian Gulf near the strait. US Central Command said in a post on X late Wednesday that it had launched a subsequent wave of strikes to "degrade Iran's ability to threaten" shipping in the waterway, targeting air defense sites, missile and drone facilities, and coastal surveillance installations. Air defenses were activated in parts of Tehran, Iran's state-run Press TV reported. Trump announced Wednesday night on Truth Social that Iran had released an American woman detained since December 2024, praising the Islamic Republic for "this gesture of Goodwill" and saying she was safely outside the country.

Standard Nuclear Raises $150 Million in IPO After Slashing Size

- Standard Nuclear Inc. raised $150 million in its US initial public offering after cutting the size nearly in half earlier.
- The company priced the offering of 10 million shares at $15 each, giving Standard Nuclear a market value of about $2.4 billion based on the outstanding shares listed in its filings.
- Standard Nuclear designs and makes fuel used by advanced nuclear reactors, including small modular units, and has agreed to collaborate with Oklo Inc. on nuclear fuel recycling and advanced fuel manufacturing.

Korea Plans Measures on Leveraged ETFs Driving Wild Volatility

South Korea will soon announce measures regarding the leveraged exchange-traded funds tied to shares of Samsung Electronics Co. and SK Hynix Inc. that have fueled a surge in market volatility. Financial Services Commission Chairman Lee Eog² weor said in a YouTube program that the regulator was in close talks with the nation's finance ministry as well as the Bank of Korea and Financial Supervisory Service on a plan to roll out steps to protect investors and ensure market stability. Lee didn't specify what the measures may include. The leveraged ETFs launched just two months ago multiply daily moves in the underlying stocks by two times. They've been blamed by many market participants for intensifying swings due to the daily rebalancing flows required to maintain their promised return ratios. The Kospi surged more than 100% this year to a record high in June but has since tumbled into a bear market. The benchmark index dropped as much as 7.3% Thursday, with SK Hynix and Samsung sliding more than 9% each.
